MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Daniel A. Childs, Jr.
Comptroller

SUBJECT: 1988 Goals

The Planning Context

1. Two trends will dominate the resource arena over the next several years.

-- The Administration and the Congress will continue to press the Agency to do more to address such major policy issues as

[Redacted]

-- At the same time, however, fewer new resources (additional dollars and staff positions) will be available in the next five years than we have obtained in the last five. Thus, we will be faced with making some tough choices among competing, high-priority requirements and identifying lower priority tradeoffs.

Goals for 1988

2. Given this view of the future, the Office of the Comptroller will continue to emphasize five major goals during 1988. We will:

-- Expand our program to educate a larger audience of Agency officers on resource management and the challenges we face.

3. I will be pleased to discuss these goals with you in greater detail at your convenience.
